Pertti (Bert) Hakkinen Very interesting new study on the "Molecular cartography of the human skin surface in 3D," co-funded by the NIH, European Commission, and others. The PubMed link leads to free full text access. The figures are worth a look by anyone interested in the visualization of big data. <https://lnkd.in/bpxshAU>

Molecular cartography of the human skin surface in 3D.

See comment in PubMed Commons below Proc Natl Acad Sci U S A. 2015 Mar 30. pii: 201424409. [Epub ahead of print] The human skin is an organ with a surface area of 1.5-2 m<sup>2</sup> that provides our interface with the environment. The molecular composition of
